Opening Prayer*

Wonderful Lord Jesus,

As we wait to celebrate your first coming as a little infant and wait for your second coming as King of kings, give us the love that motivates us. This is the love that is unconditional. You, O Lord, love everyone because you are love. We love you and our neighbors because we want to be perfect like you.

This love motivates us to heal and comfort.

This love motivates us to help the poor meet their needs.

This love motivates us to listen to people and understand where they come from.

This love motivates us to seek justice for poor, oppressed, and marginalized people.

This love motivates us to risk feeding our enemies when they are hungry.

In the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen.

To be the face of Jesus ask yourself:

1. Do I proclaim the Kingdom of God?

2. Do I love everyone, even my enemies?

3. Do I seek justice by standing in solidarity with poor, oppressed & marginalized people?
